Honorable John W. McCormack
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCormack:

STAT

Last week Bryce Harlow forwarded to me correspondence concerning one ████████████████████████████ Unfortunately we were unable to pull all of the necessary information together in order for formal action to be taken in a letter back to you from Bryce before the Congress adjourned and you departed Washington.

I am advised that William B. Macomber, Jr., Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations, Department of State, did talk with you about the [████] case after you had written the letter to Bryce Harlow. Prior to his talking with you, he received from this Agency and from other agencies such information as was available on [████] I am under the impression that your discussion with Mr. Macomber was sufficient for your purposes. However, if you wish additional information I would be delighted to chat with you on this case and, in fact, would welcome the opportunity to visit with you.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR

Attached is a proposed letter for your signature to Mr. McCormack. At this time he and his principal assistants have departed Washington. After discussion with his office, it was thought desirable to close the record with this type of letter. I have chatted personally with Bill Macomber, who feels sure that Mr. McCormack is satisfied and will not push further. I have also chatted with Bryce Harlow, who had hoped that there would have been time for you to telephone Mr. McCormack. I believe at this time this is the simplest way of closing the case, and I have made a copy of
